

December 7, 2016. Minneapolis, MN. Vado, Inc. is honored to announce they received two 2016 Excellence Awards presented by ELearning! Magazine. The Vado Leadership Development Learning Track has received the Best of 2016 Excellence Award presented for two years running. In addition, Vado's Management Development Learning Track won the Excellence award. The award recognizes best-in-class corporate learning and technology solutions.

Celebrating 12 years, the Best of Elearning! Awards follow a unique, open nomination format where winners are nominated and chosen exclusively by users. The only requirement is that voters must be professionals who have used the eLearning products and services they nominate.

Since 2004, over 25,000 eLearning professionals have participated in the awards nomination process. 2016 Best of Elearning! participants had the option to vote for their favorite off the shelf e-learning courses and learning technology solutions across 30 different categories. Vado's Leadership Development Learning Track received the Excellence Award in their "Best Leadership Development" category two years in a row. Vado's Management Development Learning Track received the Excellence Award in their "Best Employee Soft Skills" category.

"This award is extra special to us because it expresses appreciation from our clients who have experience working with Vado and our unique instructional design that is changing the face of learning." — Cindy Pascale, CEO, Vado, Inc.

Vado is changing the face of learning with micro-learning courses followed by step by step instructions on how to apply the course on the job where 70% of development happens. "We are honored to receive the Excellence Award in the 2016 Best of Elearning!. We view this award as recognition of our instructional design, which all 370+ of our courses follow" says Cindy Pascale, CEO, Vado, Inc. "We thank everyone who nominated us and Elearning! Magazine for creating an exceptional program that puts the voice of the customer first."

The awards announcement will be published in the December 2016 issue of Elearning! Magazine. A Best of Elearning! Awards ceremony will be held at the 2016 Enterprise Learning! Conference. To learn more, visit <http://www.2elearning.com/awards/best-of-elearning-awards>.
